

House rules

Deposit

The lodger is responsible for the rented house and its furniture and technical equipment during his stay.

The lodger pays a deposit of 50,-€ for a stay of 2 days and 100,-€ for a longer duration, which will be returned to him when he leaves and it has been established, that the house and the items in it are in the same condition as they were, when he started to rent it. The landlord is entitled to compensation also after his leave, if he finds out, that there were things missing or damaged by the lodger.

Technical equipment such as ventilator and heaters should be only used, when there is actually someone in the house and the doors are closed. Otherwise the landlord is entitled to charge extra for electricity.

The wooden houses are in danger of fire and it is therefore not allowed to smoke or to burn candles or to have BBQ.

The swimming pool is communitarian and there should be thoughtfulness for the others.

Opening hours for the pool:

10.00 hours– 14.00 hours

17.00 hours – 20 hours
